NAME OF POSITION OR AWARD

The American Physical Society confers positions and awards based on qualifications and significant contributions to physics, and these positions and awards are at the discretion of the Society. The American Physical Society has the right to refuse granting a position or award if the individual has been unethical. Unethical behavior includes fabrication, falsification, plagiarism of scientific results, harassment of colleagues and subordinates, undisclosed conflicts of interest, conflicts of commitment and improper use of funds.

The American Physical Society Guidelines on Ethics, including the Code of Conduct for Meetings, are located at <https://www.aps.org/policy/statements/guidlinesethics.cfm>. If you have questions, you can direct them to ethics@aps.org.

WILLINGNESS TO BE CONSIDERED FOR POSITION OR AWARD

I do not wish to be considered for this honor at this time.

I wish to be considered for this honor at this time. If you wish to be considered for this honor, please answer this question:

Have you been the subject of a filed allegation, complaint, investigation, sanction or other legal, civil or institutional proceeding where there was a finding of misconduct or, are you currently the subject of such an allegation, complaint, or investigation in which your professional conduct or integrity is at issue?

No

Yes If yes, you will be contacted by an APS Ethics Officer for a confidential discussion of the details of the complaint. This is not automatically disqualifying for the award or position.

CERTIFICATION

I affirm that I have read, understand, and agree to abide by the American Physical Society Guidelines on Ethics and other policies and procedures established by APS, as amended from time to time.

By signing this document, I certify that, to the best of my knowledge, the above response and all information provided by me related to this Professional Conduct Disclosure Form are truthful, accurate, and complete, and I agree to notify APS promptly of any material changes required in my responses to the above question.

I acknowledge that failure to comply with APS's Guidelines on Ethics, including its Code of Conduct for Meetings, may result in my ineligibility to receive, or in revocation of, any APS award, honor, other type of APS recognition, or governance position, and is grounds for potential sanctions against me.
